

WINTER 2018

Happy Holidays!

The Holiday Season is nigh—and I wish you grace and happy memories. Celebrate life and be thankful for even the smallest of joys. Ours is a world in upheaval as we strive to express our individuality and grow together. If only we felt love in our hearts and banished ill will toward others. With the mirror effect, what we put out comes back to us.

I ask you to look at your life beyond family and friends and realize you are an important part of our world's existence. If we can expand our thinking to a larger scale, perhaps it will push our limited perspective beyond ourselves.

*If Earth changes, grows, or suffers, the humans do likewise. It is wise always to praise Earth and to thank Earth for life and beauty. Simply said, give thanks to Earth each day—for without Earth your soul's experience in growth and wakening would not be possible at this pace.**

Love & Light,
Diane
